

Your Event

Hello.

If you have organised a recurring sports event or one-off pastime, you will probably want to leave participants and potential entries for next year's event with a memory of their involvement, whether this is the ability to download stills photography or video of their experience.

At Ashman Media we can:

- ▲ Create highlights of the event, pre-race activity, the start, action from key locations, finishers and awards ceremony of the race, etc.
- ▲ Interview participants, winners and followers.
- ▲ Produce a promotional sting video to help advertise the following year's event.
- ▲ Create footage for an awards evening including the full editing of the nomination process.
- ▲ Footage taken in the day and edited for showing the same evening. (Golf day, track events, public address and audio visual equipment available for hire).
- ▲ Footage of athletes and their supporters in training over a given period leading up to an event.

Capability

Your requirements may be similar or you may want something completely different, email or call me to discuss your requirements.

Our current capability is:

- ▲ HD, 4K, Super Slow and time-lapse images
- ▲ Tripod, off-the-shoulder and Flycam (Body mounted, image stabiliser allowing the filming of people on the move)
- ▲ Participant chasing in a car or motorcycle (or golf cart!)

How much does it cost?

There are a number of elements you need to allow for:

For £150, you get...

- ▲ Around 6 hours on-site filming, including interviews, the start, race footage and the finish line.
- ▲ Editing of a 10 minute or so film, usually completed within 2 weeks of the event.
- ▲ The edit will include your logo and website details and race information.
- ▲ Minor changes are made for free as part of the package.
- ▲ Additional editing, such as promotional reels for next year's event, social media clips posted on the day and advertising for other events, start from £30.

Speak to us!

Drop me a line or phone, it costs nothing to discuss your requirement

As you can see creating great promotional footage is not expensive, make sure you check out our existing event films on this site.

What should you do now?

The first and most important thing is, availability. I book myself well into the future and the first event in the diary is the one that takes precedence. Contact me to make sure the day is free.

Let me know what you want and I will offer fixed pricing so that you can budget accordingly. A non-returnable deposit is requested of £30 to secure the booking.

2019 is going to be a great year, make sure your event stands out from the rest!
